

PUTTING OURSELVES
IN THE PICTURE

Migrant Voice and Glasgow
Museums are inviting you to join Putting Ourselves

OF A MULTI CULTURAL CREATIVE PROJECT!

The project explores and celebrates the heritage and contributions of those who have made Scotland their home.

Collaborative exhibitions, events and publications will bring this to life for the wider Glasgow Community.

Putting Ourselves in the Picture involves a range of events and opportunities, including pop-up and online exhibitions, collaborative publications, training sessions, museum tours and other creative projects.

As part of the project, a photographic exhibition produced and curated by migrants in collaboration with the museum and Migrant Voice team will launch at the Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum in September 2023.

You will:

- Help us develop the project
- Create exhibitions and pop-up events
- Contribute to zines and other publications
- Take part in museum tours and events
- Make new connections across Glasgow communities
- Get trained in storytelling, photography, museum skills and more
